Auckland, NZ | 17 August, 9 Spokes (ASX: 9SP or "the Company"), a leading marketplace and insights company to small businesses, is pleased to announce it has successfully converted its Proof of Concept (POC) and subsequent Memorandum of Understanding with OCBC Bank into a formal contract to deliver a white-label version of 9 Spokes' market leading platform.

OCBC Bank, the second largest financial services group in Southeast Asia by assets, engaged 9 Spokes in June 2017 to deliver the POC of a platform to support its SME customers in their business growth beyond traditional banking toolsets. Following the success of the POC, a formal contractual agreement has been reached.

A partner in Asia of OCBC Bank's stature is a significant step in the strategic growth of 9 Spokes and emulates the Company's market entry with leading banks in other regions through Barclays, RBC and BNZ. The partnership with OCBC Bank also facilitates the establishment of an Asia-Pac regional hub to support 9 Spokes' regional growth aspirations.

Adrian Grant, Co-Founder and Executive Director of 9 Spokes said: “It has been a pleasure to work with Mr Linus Goh and his team at OCBC Bank. OCBC Bank is an absolute leader in SME banking in Asia and its decision to partner with 9 Spokes is further evidence of the value that our platform can add to global banks and their SME customers. This is the first step of several, as we work together to provide a digital marketplace and business insights to the SME business community. We look forward to integrating our platform into OCBC Bank’s systems and delivering a unique opportunity to SME clients of OCBC Bank to have a ‘business homepage’ that delivers insights and a real-time, single pane view of how their business is really performing.”
